28TH PRANAY MILAN SAMMELAN (INDIA'S First Matrimonial ASSISTANCE FOR DEAF)

Matrimony is an important and difficult hurdle. We have been conducting Matrimonial Sammelan since 1991. One of our most popular services is the Matrimonial Assistance for Deaf. Our Matrimonial Program (PRANAY MILAN SAMMELAN- since 1991) is a program for all young deaf boys and girls where they get an opportunity to meet, interact, and find a companion for their life. It's a well thought-out and planned event, attended by deaf boys and girls along with parents coming from all over India. Since 1991 till date we have made more than 1000 success stories.

27th Sammelan was conducted at Varanasi. This year the Sammelan was at Delhi . 28th Pranay Milan Sammelan (Matrimonial Sammelan for Deaf) was on 14th April 2018 at

PEER TO PEER DEAF LITERACY PROJECT

This project investigates deaf learners' use of 'multiliteracies', including reading, writing, sign language, technology and multimodal communication, to improve the education of deaf people in developing countries. It is a three-year study called 'Peer to Peer Deaf Multiliteracies: Research into a sustainable approach to the education of deaf children and young adults in the Global South'.

To address the longstanding problem of deaf people's insufficient access to schools in the developing world, and their resulting lack of employment, income, life quality and fulfilment, this study expands and further entrenches the pilot's cost-effective and learner-directed literacy teaching methods. These methods involve peer-to-peer teaching by local deaf tutors, supported by deaf research assistants (RAs) in India, Ghana and Uganda.

Their work is bolstered in the UK including through our online app Sign Language to English for the Deaf (SLEND) and the adaptation of appropriate assessment methods. To identify generalisable, flexible models that can be taken up by educational providers in the developing world, the project considers the similarities and differences across educational systems in the different countries. It focuses throughout on the agency of deaf learners (including children as well as adults), deaf researchers, deaf tutors, and deaf educators who implement the interventions.
